

MEDIA CONTACT:
Ashley Wehrly
ashley@ashleywehrly.com
713-899-6021

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 21, 2011

EEPB'S MICHAEL PARMENTER NAMED TO GALLERIA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BOARD

HOUSTON – EEPB, P.C., one of Houston's largest CPA firms, which offers a full array of professional accounting and business advisory services, announces that one of its Shareholders, Michael Parmenter, has been named to the Board of Directors for the Galleria Chamber of Commerce, having been sworn in by Harris County Judge Ed Emmett at the organization's 25th Anniversary Luncheon.

The Galleria Chamber of Commerce is a dynamic business alliance serving the business and cultural interests of the organizations' service area, which includes Intown, The Galleria, Uptown, Highland Village, West Houston and Greenway Plaza. It was formed in 1985 and it has more than 750 members. A non-profit organization, the Chamber was chartered to enhance business-to-business communication, development, and economic growth.

About EEPB, P.C.

As one of Houston's largest CPA firms, EEPB, P.C. offers a full array of professional accounting and business advisory services to clients throughout the U.S. and internationally. The firm develops and implements solutions for client needs in areas including taxation, audit, financial reporting, litigation support, and business and technology consulting. Operating for more than 20 years, EEPB is comprised of more than 70 firm professionals. Understanding and meeting the needs of businesses and individuals ranging from beginning entrepreneurs to multi-million dollar conglomerates is the ongoing commitment of EEPB. The firm services a wide variety of industries including distribution, manufacturing, medical, oil & gas, professional services, real estate, retail and wholesale.

###